

The Checklist for Mid-Term Examination

AY2025-2026 Semester 2

Week 1

1. James Monaco's definitions of movie, film, and cinema, and their distinctions.
Related concepts: filmic, cinematic, moving image, motion pictures.
2. Andrew Klevan's understanding of aesthetics.
3. Chris Berry's ideas on content vs. style/form.

Week 2

1. Relationship between content and form.
2. Form as pattern.
3. Form and meaning.
4. Principles of film form.
5. Cinematic form and narrative structure.

Week 3

1. Narrative form (DB's definition).
2. Key definitions: narrative, story, plot.
3. Narrative structure.
4. Events and characters as causes.
5. Temporal order: how to present events out of story order.
6. Narration and narrator.

Week 4

1. Mise-en-scène: term origins and aspects.
2. Framing and traditions of mise-en-scène.
3. Differences: acting vs. performance.
4. Depth cues, planes, setting, social blocking, staging.
5. Mise-en-scène in long takes.
6. Deep focus vs. deep space.

Week 5

1. Cinematography: choice and control.
2. Eadweard Muybridge's contributions.
3. Photographic qualities and shot types (focus, distance, angles, movement, etc.).
4. Orson Welles and long takes.
5. Two axes determining focus.
6. D.W. Griffith and the close-up.
7. Shot types: medium long shot, cowboy shot, low-angle variants, trunk shot.
8. Mobile framing, POV shots, establishing/master shots.
9. Different dimensions of shots
1. Camera movements (find this video essay and review it on the Ispace)

Week 6

2. Two traditions of editing: découpage classique vs. European montage.
3. Editing in The Magician (Le Magicien).
4. Review: 101 Introduction to Cuts and Transitions. (find this video essay and review it on the Ispace)

5. Editing techniques:
 - o Continuity editing (match cuts, eyeline matches, shot / reverse shot).
 - o Transitions (fades, wipes, dissolves, jump cuts, split screens).
 - o J-cuts, L-cuts, intellectual montage, superimposition.
 5. Kuleshov effect, constructive editing, analytical editing.
 6. Plot time cues: order, duration, frequency.
 7. Flashbacks, flashforwards, linear narratives.
 8. Rules of continuity editing

Continuity editing relies on matching screen direction, position, and temporal relations from shot to shot. For specific techniques of continuity editing, see axis of action, crosscutting, cut-in, establishing shot, eyeline match, match on action, reestablishing shot, screen direction, shot / reverse shot.

9. Hollywood montage variants (e.g., falling-in-love montage).
10. Analytical editing and constructive editing
11. elliptical editing

Week 8

1. André Bazin: deep focus, long takes, mise-en-scène.
2. Long takes and real time.
3. Long takes with camera movement.
4. Hidden dissolves vs. hard cuts.
5. Functions of the long take (refer to DB's chapter).

Notice:

Review films discussed or mentioned in class to contextualize these concepts.
The films discussed in class will be useful for this mid-term exam.